Dear Cactus,

Though you're no longer with me I wanted to take a moment to express my gratitude for the time you spent in my life. You were more than just a plant you were a symbol of resilience and quiet beauty.

Thank you for your presence in my home for the way you stood tall and strong requiring so little but offering so much. You taught me the value of patience of thriving in difficult conditions and of finding beauty in simplicity.

Though I no longer have you in my space the lessons you taught me remain. You will always have a place in my heart a reminder of the calm and strength you brought to my life.

“Though you’re no longer here the strength and beauty you gave me remains in my heart.”

With gratitude,
Shalo
